Richard Morris

Entry Level Software Engineer

(770) 361-9768
rallanmorris@gmail.com
Atlanta, GA

Motivated Computer Science graduate from the University of Georgia with 8 months experience in Software Development. Seeking to use proven skills in C#, Java, and project management via Zendesk to meet business needs at JPMorgan Chase & Co.

Skills:

- C#
- Git
- Java
- Familiar with Javascript, HTML/CSS, C++
- Microsoft Office
- Self-Motivated and flexible
- Strong teamwork and communication skills
- Creative Thinking
- Analytical Thinking

Education:

University of Georgia

BS Computer Science

2016 – 2020 | Athens, GA

Relevant Coursework:

Data Structures; Software Engineering; Software Development; Web Programming; Systems Programming

Class Projects:

Hello Virtual World (VIDEO)

- Collaborated with 2 peers to create a Virtual Reality
- experience meant to teach programming through building a virtual car.
- Created the experience using the Unity game engine, Oculus Dev Tools, C# scripts, and git.

Work Experience:

Botanical Gardens / Atlanta, GA

Nov 2022 - PRESENT

Event Operations Associate

- Work together with a team to manage events and correspond with clients.

Strike Tennis / Kennesaw, GA

March 2017 - PRESENT

Website Manager

- Created the website for Strike Tennis.
- Strike Tennis teaches tennis to over 400 students in 10 different schools. All payments and registration are routed through the website: striketennis.com

Thrive Technologies / Kennesaw, GA

January 2020 - August 2020

Software Development Intern

- Worked both solo and with a team using the Kanban framework.
- Developed new features (such as bulk import of SKUs) and fixed bugs in the web application.
- Maintained SQL Servers
- Corresponded with customers

UGA Sustainability / Athens, GA

Summer 2019

Software Development Internship

- Worked with a 3 person team over the summer to create an educational web application to teach students about recycling.
- Used Javascript, HTML, and Heroku.